

South African

Currants

Product Description

Currants are dark brown to black dried seedless grapes with a natural flavour. Grown in a Mediterranean like climate, in the Olifantsriver Valley and naturally dried in direct sunlight.

A unique product to South Africa, exclusively produced international baking sector.

South Africa is the 2nd largest producers of Currents with 4000 - 5000 ton/annum.

Product Specification

- ✓ Berry Count: 900 -1400/100g
- ✓ Packed moisture: 12 - 18%
- ✓ Colour: Within colour chart
- ✓ Foreign objects: 1/1000kg (no glass)
- ✓ Damage: 2%/100g
- ✓ Cap Stems: 25/kg
- ✓ Insect infestation: None
- ✓ Stalks: > 10mm - 1/packed unit
< 10mm - 3/packed unit
- ✓ Blemishes: 5%

*Disclaimer - specification is subject to change please check with packer.

Unique Selling Point

- ✓ Distinct flavour
- ✓ Excellent product flow
- ✓ Small berry count, for improved even product distribution.
- ✓ No to Low pesticide residue
- ✓ Well within Ochratoxin A max. levels.

Current Product use

Baking

Raisins
South Africa